

Baird Medical Hosts Malaysian Thyroid Specialists for Advanced Microwave Ablation Training in China

April 24, 2025

NEW YORK, April 24, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Baird Medical Investment Holdings Ltd. (NASDAQ: BDMD) ("Baird Medical" or the "Company") proudly welcomed a delegation of leading thyroid specialists from Malaysia for an intensive clinical training and academic exchange at the Eighth Affiliated Hospital of Sun Yat-sen University and Shenzhen People's Hospital in Shenzhen, China.

The program underscores Baird Medical's commitment to promoting global collaboration and advancing clinical excellence in microwave ablation (MWA) for thyroid disease. Participating physicians engaged in an intensive, comprehensive curriculum that included expert-led demonstrations, hands-on workshops, and live observation of MWA procedures performed by leading specialists. These real-time clinical sessions enabled in-depth discussions regarding procedural technique, patient selection criteria, and post-treatment outcomes. The highly interactive format fostered meaningful knowledge exchange and reinforced international clinical partnerships.

"We were honored to host the esteemed doctors from Malaysia and witness their dedication to advancing minimally invasive care," said Haimei Wu, Chairwoman of Baird Medical. "These international exchanges are instrumental in accelerating the global adoption of innovative thyroid treatment techniques."

This successful event represents a significant step forward in Baird Medical's mission to expand global education and elevate clinical proficiency in microwave ablation. The Company remains dedicated to empowering healthcare professionals with the tools and expertise required to deliver safe, effective, and minimally invasive therapies for thyroid disorders.
